

21 Low-Cost Ways to Spruce Up Your Home

With the housing market so competitive, and many choices on the market, make your home more appealing to Buyers with these quick and easy tips.

1. Trim bushes so they don't block windows and cut down on light.
2. Buy a new doormat.
3. Put a pot of bright flowers (or a small evergreen in winter) on your porch.
4. Put new doorknobs on your doors.
5. Put a fresh coating on your driveway.
6. Edge the grass around walks and trees.
7. Keep your garden tools and kids toys out of site.
8. Buy a new mailbox.
9. Upgrade the outside lighting.
10. Use warm, well-placed lighting for a homey feel.
11. Polish or replace your house numbers.
12. Clean your gutters.
13. Put out potpourri or burn scented candles.
14. Buy new pillows for the sofa.
15. Buy a flowering plant and put it in a window you pass by frequently.
16. Make a centerpiece for your table with fruit or artificial flowers.
17. Replace heavy curtains with sheer ones that let in more light.
18. Buy new towels.
19. Put a seasonal wreath on your door.
20. Start packing so Buyers see more of your house, and less of your stuff
21. Neutralize the décor – repaint vivid walls, replace bright or outdated bedding